Welfare Officer Election

Informal Election

There were four candidates for Welfare Officer, after 3 reopenings of nominations due to lack of candidates. The candidates expressed a wish only to run on the condition that they be elected as pairs; a solution was devised such that an informal (non-binding) online election would be held to elect a pair of candidates via Alternative Vote. The losing pair would agree to withdraw before the formal poll began. This informal election took place on Friday, 3rd June.

114 votes were cast.

Candidate	Votes	Percentage
Benjamin Atkinson & Eleanor Clark	48	38%
Shivani Arun & Kieran Dewalt	68	60%
RON	3	3%

Accordingly, Benjamin and Eleanor chose voluntarily to withdraw from the election.

Formal Polling

Polling took place on Saturday 4th June and results were announced at 21:00 in the College Bar. Many thanks to Benjamin, for his help during polling.

37 votes were cast, including 8 online.

2 ballots were spoilt: one for 'Joe Bell' and one specified two first choice preferences.

The total valid vote was 35.

First Stage Quota was 11.67.

Candidate	Votes	Percentage
Shivani Arun	18	51%
Kieran Dewalt	12	34%
RON	5	14%

Shivani Arun and Kieran Dewalt were over quota, so both were elected.

Conclusion Shivani Arun and Kieran Dewalt were elected JCR Welfare Officers.
